Keystone Property Group Reaches Agreement with Mack-Cali to Acquire 412 Mt. Kemble Avenue in Morris Township, N.J.

Prime Office Property Part of Keystone's Acquisition of Tri-State Area Portfolio

MORRIS TOWNSHIP, N.J. (July 1, 2014) – Keystone Property Group, a leading real estate investor, manager and developer of office and industrial properties, today announced that it has closed on the acquisition of 412 Mt. Kemble Avenue in Morris Township, N.J. for approximately $45.4 million from Mack-Cali Realty Corporation (NYSE: CLI). Earlier this year, Keystone and Mack-Cali entered into agreements to form various joint ventures to acquire the property as part of a larger portfolio of office properties that Mack-Cali owns throughout Northern New Jersey, New York, and Connecticut.

412 Mt. Kemble Avenue, positioned in the heart of Morris County's prestigious corporate corridor, is comprised of three, three-story buildings totaling 475,100 square feet. The buildings, which are connected by two full-height atriums, offer a variety of high-grade offices, including a large block of headquarters-quality space. Keystone plans to invest approximately $5.9 million in the property to improve building systems and infrastructure, amenities, and overall curb appeal.

"412 Mt. Kemble Avenue fits ideally with our mission to invest thoughtfully and strategically in well-located assets that can be reinvigorated through reinvestment," commented Bill Glazer, President of Keystone Property Group. "The property offers high upside, with the opportunity to lease in the highly desirable corporate corridor in Morris County."

Earlier this quarter, Keystone closed on three other New Jersey commercial properties including 30 Knightsbridge Road in Piscataway, 470 Chestnut Ridge Road in Woodcliff Lake, and 530 Chestnut Ridge Road in Woodcliff Lake as part of the company's portfolio deal with Mack-Cali. Reflecting the ownership's strategy for the portfolio, Keystone will reinvest in the properties through redevelopment, management and upgrades to each site. Through its partnership with Keystone, Mack-Cali will participate in value creation above certain hurdle rates, handle leasing of the portfolio, as well as share in management fees.

Mitchell E. Hersh, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mack-Cali, added, "We're excited to close on 412 Mt. Kemble, as we continue to invest in more strategic growth opportunities. We are confident that, through an aggressive leasing initiative, the partnership can effectively capitalize on this property's prime market position."

412 Mt. Kemble Avenue currently offers a variety of amenities for tenants, including a fitness center, café, executive parking garage, and dual power feeds. The buildings are convenient to several major thoroughfares, including Route 287 and Route 202, and is located only minutes from the heart of Morristown.
