AJC's 2016 Community Leadership Award will be presented to Bill Glazer, President and CEO of Keystone Property Group, in recognition of his achievements in real estate, philanthropy, and community leadership. Bill will accept the award at a dinner at the Atrium At The Curtis on Thursday, September 22nd.

Bill founded Keystone, a full-service real estate investment and development firm based in Philadelphia, in 1991. Since then, he has developed and invested in more than 12 million square feet of commercial space, including billions of dollars in transactions.

Bill is very active in civic and community affairs in the Philadelphia area. He has served as Chairman of the Board of Hyperion Bank, and is Director on several non-profit boards, including the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia.

The recipient of many awards and honors, Bill was named one of Philadelphia Business Journal's "40 Under 40" and was named an Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the Year. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

AJC is the global advocate for the well-being of the Jewish people and for the advancement of democratic values for all. For more than 110 years, AJC has sought to advance the peace and security of the Jewish people around the world. Through high-level diplomacy, strong legislative advocacy, and effective interreligious and interethnic coalitions, AJC has made a significant impact on issues critical to the Jewish people. With key relationships at the regional, national, and international levels—from diplomats, to global decision-makers and community leaders—AJC is the preeminent global Jewish advocate.

The Co-Chairs for the 2016 Community Leadership Award Dinner are Joshua Gross, of Mill Creek Capital Advisors, and Mackenzie Gross.
